DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Spicijaric (US 5,548,847). Spicijaric discloses a protective garment (10) including a pocket (22) defining a window (20) with a flap (40) that is movable in order to cover the window and it is positioned not to cover the window as shown in figures 2 and 3. Further, a display card (50) is inserted within the pocket that is readable through the window, col. 3, lines 24-35 and as shown in figure 5.

3. Claims 1, 2, 3, and 4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Golde (US 5,884,338). Golde discloses a protective garment, col. 3, lines 26-28, including a pocket (18) defined by a transparent window (34), col. 4, lines 26-27 that is covered by a flap as shown in figure 4. Further, the flap is movable in order to cover the window and it is positioned not to cover the window as shown in figures 2 and 3. Additionally, the pocket is adapted to receive credit card, etc, col. 5, lines 7-10 that is readable through the window, which is inherently printed with magnetic strip and decorative/symbolic insignia thereon. Furthermore, the flap detachably covers the window by being attached by hook and loop strips as shown in figure 4.

With regard to the language in claim 1 that “the garment is worn when passing through a security perimeter”. It is inherent that both the protective garments of Spicijaric and Golde can be worn when passing through a checkpoint.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. Claims 5 and 6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Golde in view of Clement (US 5,195,123). Golde discloses the invention as set forth above except for showing a card having a bar code data with a photograph.

Clement discloses a card having a bar code data with a photograph as shown in figure 2.

Therefore, it would have been obvious to one skilled in the art to recognize that the pocket of Golde can be utilized to carry a card having a bar code data with a photograph as taught by Clement or any other desired items therewithin as required for a particular application or end use thereof.
